O.105-B:

- (1) No confirmed teacher (including Principal or Head of Recognised Institution) shall be removed from service by a College Institution except on one or more of the following grounds and except in accordance with the procedure prescribed herein under:
 - 1 Persistent negligence of duty.
 - 2 Physical or mental unfitness.
 - 3 Incompetence.
 - 4 Misconduct.

Explanation: A teacher who has put in not less than two years continuous service in college or Institution concerned shall be deemed to be a confirmed teacher for the purposes of this Ordinance.

 - 5 Where work-load in a subject or subjects is so reduced that a part-time teacher is not required, or the workload is so increased that a full-time teacher is required in place of a part-time teacher. (Ground NO.5 shall apply to part-timers only)
- (2) No order of removal shall be passed against a confirmed teacher (including Principal or Head of recognised Institution) unless he has been informed in writing of the grounds on which it is proposed to take action and has been afforded an adequate opportunity of defending himself. The grounds on which it is proposed to take action shall be reduced to the form of a definite charge or charges, which shall be communicated to the teacher charged together with a statement of the allegations on which each charge is based and of any other circumstances which it is proposed to take into consideration in passing orders in the case.
- (3) The teacher shall be given not less than a fortnight to put in a written statement of his defence and state whether he desires to be heard in person. If he so desires, or if the management concerned so directs, an Oral inquiry shall be held.
- (4) The inquiry shall be conducted by a person other than an employee of the management nominated by the management,
- (5) The Inquiry Officer shall hold the inquiry with due expedition and shall make his report within a month from the commencement of the inquiry and shall submit it to the management. The inquiry shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of natural justice.
- (6) At the inquiry, oral evidence may be led both by the management and the teacher, as to such of the allegations as are not admitted and both the parties shall be entitled to have witnesses called and to cross-examine each other's witnesses. The teacher shall be entitled to give evidence in person.
- (7) At the said inquiry the management may, if it so desires, lead documentary evidence in support of the charge/charges framed against the teacher. In that case, copies of the said documents shall be supplied to the teacher.
- (8) The teacher, shall be entitled to lead documentary evidence, if he so desires.
- (9) On consideration of the report made by the Inquiry Officer and the findings recorded by him if the management arrive at a provisional conclusion that the teacher concerned should be removed from service, the management shall supply the teacher with a copy of the said report and call upon him to show cause within a reasonable time not exceeding one month against the proposed removal.

- (10) Any representation submitted by the teacher, in this behalf shall be fully taken into consideration before orders are passed by the management. The management shall pass the orders within a fortnight of receiving the representation and if no representation is submitted by the last date for its submission, within a fortnight from the last date fixed for the submission of the representation.
- (11) The representation of the teacher shall form a part of the record of the case.
- (12) If, in the opinion of the management, the charge or charges is or are of such a nature that the presence of the teacher, against whom the charge or charges is or are made, is prejudicial to the working of the college the management may place him under suspension till final orders are passed.
- (13) During the period of suspension the teacher shall be entitled to draw a subsistence allowance at half the rate of his pay last drawn. He shall also be granted other allowances admissible to a teacher on the pay equal to the subsistence allowance.
- (14) In every case of removal of a confirmed teacher, from the service of a college the management of the college shall make a report in writing to the University through the Principal. The report shall be accompanied by a full record of inquiry, including the report made by the Inquiry Officer, the show-cause notice, the representation of the teacher, vide Rule 10 and the order passed by the management.
- (15) The teacher, who is removed from the service by the college and who feels aggrieved by such removal, shall have the right to appeal against the order of removal to the University within a period of one month from the date of the removal.
- (16) Every such appeal shall be referred by the University to a tribunal consisting of:-
 - (i) a nominee of the Syndicate (Chairman);
 - (ii) one member of the Senate named by the aggrieved party;
 - (iii) one member of the Senate named by the management.
- (17) The tribunal shall proceed to hear the appeal within a fortnight of its appointment and shall make its report within a month from the date of commencement of the hearing.
- (18) The management by its representative and the teacher, shall be entitled to appear before the tribunal and to present their respective case. Neither party shall be entitled to engage a lawyer.
- (19) The decision of the tribunal shall be final and binding both upon the teacher concerned and the management. No suit shall lie against the order of removal by the college or the decision of the tribunal.
- (20) If, as a result of the decision of the tribunal, the teacher is reinstated he shall be deemed to be in continuous service and shall be entitled to all the benefits accruing from continuous service, including the payment of difference between his full salary and the subsistence and other allowance paid to him during the period of suspension, in case he was suspended.
- (21) No member of the staff shall leave the employment of the College/Institution in the midst of any term and without giving to the authorities three months' notice if he is confirmed or one month's notice, if he is temporary or on probation, provided that such notice, shall not end in the middle of an academic term. In case, however, a member does not give the required notice the College/Institution authorities shall be entitled to claim from him an amount not exceeding the salary and such allowance as may be payable to him for the period of notice.

No teacher shall be entitled to payment of salary from both the Colleges and/or Institutions.

If a member of the staff leaves the service in the middle of an academic term without due notice and joins any College/Institution affiliated to/recognised by the University, the Syndicate may not approve his appointment in the new college or recognise him as a teacher for that academic term.

- (22) A teacher (including Principal or Head of a recognised Institution) who has given a written acceptance of an appointment in an affiliated college or a recognised Institution shall be bound to join and serve for atleast one academic term and if he fails to do so without reasonable cause, he shall not be considered as a recognised teacher for appointment in an affiliated college or a recognised Institution for one year.
- (23) A teacher in an affiliated college or a recognised Institution, when he applies for any post at another affiliated to or an Institution recognised by this University or at a new college or Institution to be started in the University area, shall invariably send his application through the Head of his college or the Institution, as the case may be.
- (24) It shall be incumbent on the Principal of the college or the head of the Institution to forward the application of any teacher working under him addressed to a college or Institution affiliated or seeking affiliation to the University.
- (25) Where a teacher is appointed on a specified contract, the period and conditions of such contract should not be inconsistent with the conditions as laid down by the University and the terms of such contract should be submitted to the University for approval.
- (26) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions, it shall be competent for a college or a recognised institution to appoint, in the event of a vacancy occurring on account of study-leave and only on that account granted to a confirmed teacher holding a substantive appointment, a person as a temporary teacher for a period not exceeding three years, provided that (i) the person holding this substantive appointment to whom study-leave has been granted has been given lien of his post in his college or Institution, as the case may be; and (ii) in the appointment letter issued to the incumbent appointed temporarily in the leave vacancy it has been expressly stated that his appointment is purely on a temporary character and is in a leave vacancy.

The provisions of this Ordinance shall not apply to the cases of termination of services of a teacher or teachers occasioned by the closure of a college.

O.105-C:

Provided that if he possesses teaching experience not less than three years in more than one subject, he will be given an opportunity to opt for any of those subjects, and the option once exercised shall be final.”

- 4 No teacher shall ordinarily teach subject other than the subject to which he is allotted in the manner shown above,

O.111

The Registrar shall send a complete list of names of internal as well as external examiners in each subject to the Board of studies concerned which will prepare the panel and recommend to the Examination Control Board the names of the persons to be appointed as examiners in the various subjects. Provided that no teacher shall ordinarily be appointed in the same subject for more than four consecutive examinations.

EXEMPTIONS

O.112:

Except as herein otherwise provided, a candidate who has passed University Examination in a subject or subjects in which identical papers (and practical tests) are prescribed for another examination, shall (at his option) be entitled to exemption at the other examination from such subject or subjects, provided, always that the standard attained at the original examination is not lower than that required at the other examination. Candidate so exempted shall not be eligible for classes or for University awards. A candidate who has passed the examination after obtaining the benefit of condonation shall be deemed to have passed in individual subjects of the examination with the minimum percentage of marks required for passing in such subjects.

O.113:

When a student who has earned exemption in one or more subjects at an examination appears next for that examination, he must once and for all make his election whether he will avail himself of the exemption or appear for the whole examination. If he elects to appear for the whole examination, then thereafter he cannot claim the benefit of the old examination. But on his appearing for the whole examination, he may again earn exemption in one or more subjects and such fresh exemption earned will again be subject to the above provision. If he elects to avail himself of the exemption then he must appear in all the remaining subjects at the same time. It is open to him to earn further exemption in one or more of the remaining subjects in which he so appears.

O.114:

If a candidate is allowed to join the next higher class, because he has obtained exemption from all subjects but one in which he has failed, he will not be permitted to appear for the higher examination unless (i) he has previously passed in the single remaining subjects of the lower examination, or (ii) he appears in that subject simultaneously with his appearance at the higher examination. In the later case, however, he will, in no circumstances, be considered to have passed the higher examination, or in any part of it unless he passes in the aforesaid single subject (with the percentage if any, required for the total) at the same time or within two years of his obtaining the marks necessary to pass in the higher examination, or any part of it in which separate passing or exemption is permitted by the regulations.

When a candidate owing to his failure to pass in the single remaining subject of the lower examination within two years, from the date on which he passes in the remaining subject in the lower examination is not considered to have passed the higher examination or any part of it, he will forfeit all benefits accruing from the marks obtained by him in the higher examination; but the terms kept by him for such higher examination will be available to him for any further appearance at that examination.

NOTE:- This Ordinance will be applicable to the students of the old course of B. S.A. M. wherein the yearly examination is provided.

O.114-A: (Ex-Students)

This Ordinance is applicable only to those students who have failed in the subjects in which there are no practical examinations.

- (1) A student who has satisfied all the requirements of the prescribed course of studies at his college, including the necessary minimum attendance and is certified by the Principal as eligible for admission to an examination shall be called an ex-student for that examination, if after certification;

- (i) he has not appeared and failed in that examination, and
 - (ii) has not joined a college for the same course.
- (2) An ex-student shall be entitled, without being required to keep fresh terms, to have his application for admission to the examination on a subsequent occasion sent only through the college by whose Principal he was certified under clause (1) above, if he has not joined another college (for the same or a different courses).

Provided that in case the college by which the student was certified under clause (1) above, ceases to be affiliated to the University for the course of studies leading to that examination, the student shall be entitled to send his application directly to the University.

- (3) A student who has forfeited his status as an ex-student for a particular examination by joining a college for a course of studies leading to that examination may have his application sent only by the Principal of that college, if he is satisfied with the candidate's conduct and progress even-though the candidate may not have kept the terms as defined in Ordinance.
- (4) An ex-student who joins a college for a course of studies leading to an examination other than the one to which he is eligible for admission as an ex-student shall submit his application for admission through the college which he so joins whether he wishes to appear for the examination for which he has kept his attendance at that college, or for the examination at which he is entitled to appear as an ex-student, in the later case, the Principal shall certify his attendance on the strength of the transference Certificate of the college at which he kept his attendance in the first instance and shall also certify as to the candidate's conduct.
- (5) Notwithstanding clauses (3) and (4) above, ex-student or a particular examination may be required by a special notification to keep fresh terms, if in the opinion of the University authorities; the course of studies leading to that examination have been materially altered.

This Ordinance is applicable only to B. Pharm (Ayurved) and B.S.A.M. old Course.
